EDITORIAL COMMENT.

GOMPERS CAUGHT IN TRYING TO BARTER FEDERATION VOTE.

It is no longer a question of veracity between William R. Hearst and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, concerning the indiscretion of the latter in attempting to use the prestige of his position for the benefit of the candidate of a certain political party now seeking the suffrage of the of the American electorate, says the Sacramento Union.

Mr. Hearst has produced the evidence, to show that the charges he made against Gompers, who solicited the Hearst support for Mr. Bryan, are not false, as Gompers would have the public believe, but that they are genuine and that it will be difficult for the head of the American Federation of Labor to "square" himself with the members of that organization.

Mr. Gompers was not particular for a long time after he made his request to Mr. Hearst whether it became public or not. If he could not dictate what a great party should do he was in a position to make suggestive requests; but it was not until organized labor in all parts of this country began to rebel and resent the dictation of Mr. Gompers that he realized the enormity of his indiscretion and commenced to deny the authenticity of the request he sent to Mr. Hearst by cable, and the receipt of which Mr. Hearst has proved by offering it in evidence.

Gompers has been caught playing the contemptible game of politics, trying to gratify a sordid ambition by bartering away the rights of the members of that organization of which he is the head. He is not the first man to use such reprehensible tactics, to be sure, but there have been none in the history of labor unionism in the United States who have done such things and then attempted to conceal their outrageous acts behind the subterfuge of denial.

This is a free country and every man is at liberty to travel the royal road to success providing chicanery and perfidy are not resorted to in the effort, but the American people, all lovers of fair play, have only contempt for those who attempt to reach the top of the ladder by any other than honorable means.

The Hon. P. A. McCarran, district attorney of Tonopah, reiterates his statement that he will get the Democratic nomination for congress. Arrah, now, Pat, quit yer foolin'.—Reno Journal.

There was a stampede from Tonopah last week for Gold Reef south of the city. Stone buildings are already under way in this new old camp.—Reno Journal.

While not for one minute attempting to decry the merits of the new camp of Gold Reef, stories of this character do not do any camp good. The day for peddling the "bull con" in large chunks has passed.

REPUBLICANS WILL WIN SAYS TILDEN

EMINENT BARRISTER PREDICTS THAT ESMERALDA WILL BE LOST TO DEMOCRACY.

Agustus Tilden, one of the brilliant legal lights of southern Nevada, whose headquarters are at Goldfield, was in the city yesterday. He is a member of the firm of Douglass, Pyne and Tilden. He is an ardent Republican and will be a candidate for district attorney of Esmeralda county before the Republican county convention, to succeed Attorney Swallow. He predicts that Esmeralda will be in the Republican column this year as the Democrats are hopelessly divided and the Republicans solidly united. Mr. Tilden thinks that the Republicans will carry the state by a good sized majority and the next legislature will elect a Republican United States senator-vice Newlands.

MINING MAN DROPS DEAD.

(By Associated Press.)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11.—Death came suddenly today to William A. Dennis, a pioneer mining man of California, as he was enjoying a walk near his home. He was seen by a neighbor to pitch forward and fall heavily to the pavement and died immediately. He was 71 years old, a native of Wales and came to California in 1855.

PLAN BIG TIME FOR REPUBLICANS

There's surely going to be doings when the Republican state convention meets in Goldfield on August 22. At last night's meeting of the county central committee and the Republican club, plans were outlined that insure a season of delight to the Nevada crowd that will swoop down upon the busy little city known as Goldfield, say the Tribune.

Autos, a banquet, a visit to the mines and a number of surprises, the character of which is not revealed at this time, are on the program and will be worked out by a competent committee. Senator Morehouse was named as chairman of the reception committee, J. F. Douglass of the banquet committee and J. S. Corrigan of the decoration committee. The finance committee appointed to raise funds for the convention, reported that it had so far collected $7,500, and expected to gather in a total of at least $20,000 within the next ten days.

The Hippodrome theater has been engaged for the convention, and the choice is considered excellent.

SOCIALIST TICKET PLACED IN FIELD

The Socialist party held its state convention at Sparks, and placed the following ticket before the people: Presidential electors: E. A. Anderson of Sparks, J. P. Gibson of Tonopah and Charles T. Williams of Rawhide.

For congress: John Critchfield of Goldfield.

For supreme court justice: Emil Lorke of Reno.

For surveyor general: L. B. Hawkins of Carson.

For regents of the state university: Long term, A. A. Higgard of Reno; short term, C. E. Meyers of Rawhide.

SILVER PARTY TO BRING OUT TICKET

COMSTOCK MEN WILL ACT REGARDLESS OF NEWLANDS AND SHARON.

The silver party, the great party which swept Nevada time after time and which the Democrats have been endeavoring to swallow for the last ten years, is not dead although badly disorganized in many parts of the state, says a Virginia City dispatch to the Carson News. The party was in full power in Nevada, but the leaders of it were so repeatedly hoodwinked and forgotten when it came time for distribution of patronage and pap, that the Democratic wing of the organization finally assumed full control and tried to engulf the organization. However, the silver party on the Comstock will be in full blossom this year and preparations are now underway for the placing of a complete ticket in the field at the coming election.

The men behind the movement are neither Democrats or Republicans, but earnest and sincere believers in the silver cause. They point out that the Democratic party no longer indorses the silver question, that Bryan has wholly deserted the proposition and therefore the fundamental principle of the party can only be maintained and secured through the silver organization. As a consequence scores of the old-line and old-timers of the party have assured the leaders of the movement that they will stand by the party, whether for success or failure.

"The old fight will be made again," said one of the local supporters of the cause this afternoon. "Before the silver party was founded in Nevada and now we expect to begin the fight again, this time on the Comstock. We have learned from bitter experience that the Democrats were not sincere when they came to our party; we will never be caught again."

Interest is added to the matter because of the fact that Senator Newlands and his Nevada manager, W. E. Sharon, want the silver party to quietly die. Several days ago Mr. Sharon sent word to the leaders of the silver party that he and Senator Newlands would not furnish any money, any sinews for organization. "Not a cent for you; get in the Democratic line," Mr. Sharon is reported to have said to the leaders. The leaders, however, announce that they do not need Newlands-Sharon money, never expected or sought it. It is planned to extend the party organization to all parts of the state and the silver party will have nigh its pristine strength.

Sharon and Newlands are worried over the outlook on the Comstock—their own dunghill.
